MEET JIM CORDES

"I enjoy sharing my knowledge and experiences that I have gained throughout my years in the financial industry with each participant. Knowing that I am helping them see the 'big picture,' which helps them develop and achieve their individual goals, is extremely satisfying."

THE PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE THAT YOU NEED. THE ONE-ON-ONE ATTENTION YOU DESERVE.

Jim has over 19 years of experience in the retirement and financial services industries. He has worked closely with the employees of Nassau County for the past 19 years, educating them on all the benefits of participating in the plan. Jim utilizes a consultative approach to best understand client needs, which helps put them on the path to their "Day One" of retirement.

Jim graduated from Johnson & Wales University with a bachelor's degree in business management. He currently holds the FINRA Series 6 securities registration and Series 63 state securities license as well as New York State life, accident, and health insurance licenses. He also holds the professional designation of Certified Retirement Counselor® (CRC®) from the International Foundation for Retirement Education (InFRE).
