MEET THERESA MANSBART

“My goal is to provide employees with the knowledge and guidance they need to make sound financial decisions for their retirement. I enjoy listening to their concerns and goals for the future, and helping them feel confident about their retirement savings.”

THE PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE THAT YOU NEED. THE ONE-ON-ONE ATTENTION YOU DESERVE.

Theresa Mansbart has over 35 years of experience in the retirement and financial planning industries. She has worked over the years to assist and educate Nassau County and Nassau Community College employees with their retirement and pension benefit programs. Theresa began her career helping to implement the Nassau County 457 Deferred Compensation Plan at its inception in 1986.

Theresa takes pride in the relationships she has established with her clients and continues to provide them with personalized attention and assistance well into their retirement years.

Theresa holds the Certified Retirement Counselor® (CRC®) designation from the International Foundation for Retirement Education (InFRE) and New York State life, accident, and health insurance licenses as well as the FINRA Series 6 securities registration and Series 63 state securities license.
